

Association of British Clinical Diabetologists
&
Welsh Endocrine and Diabetes Society
Spring Meeting “Now that’s what I call diabetes and endocrinology”
Hilton Cardiff, 23rd & 24th April 2015

PRESENTATIONS

40 years at the coalface of diabetes and endocrinology in Wales.

Dr Owain Gibby, Newport.

Presentation not made available for access here

Pathogenesis, progress and prevention in management of foot disease in patients with Diabetes.

Dr Brian Kennon, Southern General Hospital, Glasgow

Pathophysiology and potential pharmacology of the gut microbiota in diabetes.

Professor Jeffrey Stephens, Swansea. (Presentation not made available for access here)

Optimal management and ongoing trials in the management of thyroid eye disease.

Professor Colin Dayan, Cardiff University School of Medicine. (Presentation not made available for access here)

New BTA British Thyroid Cancer Guidelines: changes and controversies.

Mr David Scott-Coombes, University Hospital of Wales, Cardiff. (Presentation not made available for access here)

Endpoint trials in diabetes. Are we any closer to improving cardiovascular outcomes in type 2 diabetes?

Professor Miles Fisher, Glasgow Royal Infirmary. (Presentation not made available for access here)

Frequency and predictors of chronic liver disease in the Edinburgh Type 2 Diabetes Study

Joanne Morling, Edinburgh. (Presentation not made available for access here)

Small fibre dysfunction in Hypothyroidism – a prospective study using methods of small fibre function and structure

Sanjeeve Sharma, Ipswich. (Presentation not made available for access here)

So easy! – the ABCD nationwide audits

Dr Bob Ryder, Sandwell and West Birmingham Hospitals, Birmingham

Thyroid eye disease - Update.

Professor Colin Dayan, Cardiff University School of Medicine

Pitfalls, Progress and Progress:- Re-assigning Scotland from the control arm of the DCCT trial.

Professor Johnny McKnight, Western General Hospital, Edinburgh

Type 1 diabetes and exercise.

Dr Richard Bracken, Swansea University. (Presentation not made available for access here)

DUK Diabetes Morbidity and Mortality Meeting.

Dr Julia Platts, University Hospital Llandough

A year in the diabetes literature (top 5 most important papers in the past 12-18 months).

Dr John Lindsay, Belfast Health & Social Care Trust